Board of Thomas Cook (India) considers corporate restructuring

At meeting held on 01 March 2018

The Board of Thomas Cook (India) at its meeting held on 01 March 2018 has given their consent to the management to explore the possibility of an internal corporate restructuring exercise that would (i) enable the Company to focus on travel related business, (ii) give the shareholders direct exposure and shareholding in the business of Qess Corp; and (iii) enhance the stakeholders' value (Proposed Restructuring).
